What:
In tradition, local elected officials will join Domes Tree Farm owners to cut a holiday tree for the 17th Annual Winter's Eve at Lincoln Square, New York's largest holiday festival. The Lincoln Square Business Improvement District is thrilled to once again support New York state tree farmers. The tree will get cut and prepared for its journey to New York City at Domes Tree Farm, located in Bliss, New York on Thursday, November 10th at 11:00am. This New York born and raised Concolor Fir is 27 feet tall and nearly 15 feet across. Domes Tree Farm is a family-owned business that's been in operation since 1952, and is part of a vibrant agricultural economy in rural Wyoming County, southeast of Buffalo. Current owners Bill and Katie Domes specialize in tree-moving farm machinery which will prepare the tree for its long journey. The tree will be unloaded and installed at Dante Park (Broadway between 63rd and 64th Streets) by the New York City Department of Parks & Recreation on the morning of Monday, November 14th.

The tree will be the festival's center piece and features LED lights generously donated by Lowe's Home Improvement as well as old-fashioned silver glass glitter ornaments by Wendy Addison and Tinsel Trading. The tree will be on display through January 2017. Winter's Eve at Lincoln Square is set for Monday, November 28th, 2016 from 5:30 p.m. – 9:00 p.m. and begins with the Upper West Side's only tree lighting ceremony on the main stage at Dante Park.

Winter's Eve at Lincoln Square is hosted and produced by the Lincoln Square Business Improvement District (BID), a not-for-profit tax-exempt organization that was formed in 1996 by property owners, businesses and others with a stake in this Upper West Side community. The mission of the Lincoln Square Business Improvement District is to make Lincoln Square cleaner, safer, and more beautiful, and to undertake various improvement projects by focusing efforts on supplemental sanitation and security services; the beautification of public spaces, malls, and parks; and the promotion and marketing of the area's diverse business and cultural offerings. Members of the Lincoln Square BID include property owners, businesses, hotels, restaurants, leading retail establishments, both large and small, cultural institutions, public officials, and residents.
